Welcome to THEATRE ROYAL WINDSOR

And our superb summer / autumn season!

We are settling in nicely here at the Theatre and are enjoying getting to know you all.

Looking ahead, we have some great shows coming up. Our first Windsor in-house production of The Anastasia File starring Jenny Seagrove kicks off our excellent Drama programme this season. Be the first to see Martin Shaw in Gaslight this September before the show heads out on a National tour and Windsor Rep is back with three new productions for 2019.

We are thrilled to be welcoming Michael McIntyre for the first time, as well as a whole host of star names who will be joining us throughout the year.

Our local Stars of tomorrow will be presenting Oliver! this August and we cannot wait to see the show. We want the Theatre to be the beating heart of our community and we are always looking at even more ways for you to get involved. You can now attend our one off Scratch Choir days, join Lamda drama classes, get involved in Windsor Words and youngsters will have the opportunity to take up Musical Theatre Training with Redroofs Theatre School at the Royal on Saturday mornings.

We are so lucky to have this beautiful building in which to provide all these fantastic opportunities and the Theatre Royal Family are always working hard behind the scenes upgrading its facilities. This Summer that includes: New Stage lighting dimmers, a new assisted hearing loop system, new carpeting to the Bar areas, backstage areas and offices as well as launching our brand new, customer friendly website in the next few weeks. Make sure to keep your eyes peeled and let us know what you think!

A NEW TWIST ON ONE OF HISTORY'S GREATEST MYSTERIES

JENNY SEAGROVE
ANDREW LANCEL · RICHARD WINSOR

"PULLS AT YOUR MIND AFTERWARDS LIKE A PUZZLING DREAM."

Sunday Times

July, 1918. Tsar Nicholas II and his young family are brutally executed by the Bolsheviks in Ekaterinburg. Two years later in Berlin, a young woman is pulled from a canal following a failed suicide attempt and brought to a mental hospital. She remains there for many years and as doctors and the police puzzle over her identity, she slowly begins to reveal details about her past that lead those who attend her to believe that she may in fact be the Grand Duchess Anastasia, the heir to the Romanov fortune.

Jenny Seagrove leads a star cast in Royce Ryton's gripping psychological thriller, inspired by extraordinary true events. One of our most-loved actresses, Jenny Seagrove best-known for her TV roles as Jo Mills in Judge John Deed opposite Martin Shaw and Emma Harte in A Woman Of Substance; her recent West End theatre credits include The Exorcist, How The Other Half Loves and The Country Girl and on film, Another Mother's Son, Zoe and Don't Go Breaking My Heart. She is joined by Andrew Lancel (Coronation Street's villainous Frank Foster, The Bill, Twelve Angry Men and Cilla), Richard Winsor (Casualty, Saturday Night Fever, Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake and Edward Scissorhands) and Rosie Thomson (The Bill).

Memory, fact and fiction intertwine in this thrilling and moving play produced by Theatre Royal Windsor that will keep you guessing until the curtain falls.

WINDSOR'S REPERTORY SEASON RETURNS

WITH THREE FANTASTIC SHOWS FOR 2019

J B PRIESTLEY'S THRILLING

DANGEROUS CORNER

Wed 24 – Sat 27 July

DANGEROUS CORNER By J B Priestley

Wed 24 – Sat 27 July

At their stylish country retreat, Freda and Robert Caplan host a dinner party for their colleagues and friends. Young, beautiful and successful they have the world at their feet. Then a cigarette box and an ill-considered remark spark off a relentless series of revelations and other, more dangerous, secrets are painfully exposed. As the truth spills out about the suicide of Robert's clever, reckless brother the group's perfect lives begin to crumble.

From the author of "An Inspector Calls", "Dangerous Corner" was J B Priestley's first play enjoying worldwide success after its premiere in 1932.

WIFE BEGINS AT FORTY By Ray Cooney, Earl Barret and Arne Sultan

Tue 30 July – Sat 3 Aug

George, believing he has a happy marriage, is shattered to be told by Linda, his wife of 18 years, that she is going to leave him. With advice from their son, his father, and Roger from next door, George takes drastic steps to rejuvenate his marriage with hilarious consequences.

Wife Begins At Forty premiered in the West End in 1985 and is a delightful mixture of comedy and pathos. A 1988 TV adaptation starred Liza Goddard and Ray Cooney.

THE KING'S SPEECH By David Seidler

Tue 6 – Sat 10 Aug

David Seidler's original play brings the audience face to face with Bertie, Duke of York, as he is thrust onto the world stage as King George VI following his brother's abdication. With the Nazi threat looming and civil unrest at home, royal secrets explode around Bertie as he struggles to find his voice as King.

Based on the 2010 Academy Award-winning film of the same name, The King's Speech toured the UK and premiered in London's West End in 2012 and now comes to Windsor for the first time.

MADCAP HILARITY FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

JOHN BUCHAN AND ALFRED HITCHCOCK'S THE 39 STEPS

Adapted by Patrick Barlow
From an original concept by Simon Corble and Nobby Dimon

By Arrangement with Edward Snape for Fiery Angel Limited

A cast of four deftly takes on a Hitchcock classic, The 39 Steps, in this wonderfully inventive comic-thriller parody adaptation of John Buchan's 1915 novel.

The 39 Steps follows the incredible adventures of our handsome hero Richard Hannay, complete with stiff-upper-lip and British gung-ho spirit as he encounters dastardly murders, double-crossing secret agents, and devastatingly beautiful women. The show is a frantic farce, jampacked with slapstick humour, a barrage of accents and hat-swaps culminating in chaos and calamity. This wonderfully inventive and gripping comedy thriller features four fearless actors, playing 139 roles in 100 minutes of fast-paced fun, thrilling action and a colossal number of costume changes. Madcap hilarity for all the family!

Gaslight

A lost watch, a missing brooch, a displaced picture frame... Tricks of the mind perhaps, but for Bella Manningham everything seems horribly real. As the fog-bound evening draws in and the gaslight dims again, Bella realizes she is alone with no one to protect her from the footsteps creaking in the attic.

Only the unexpected arrival of former police detective Rough can help untangle fact from fiction and save a woman on the brink of insanity.

Patrick Hamilton's Gaslight was first staged in 1938, and in 1944 was adapted as a film starring legendary Academy Award winner Ingrid Bergman, Joseph Cotten and Charles Boyer.

One of the UK's best loved actors, MARTIN SHAW leads a star-studded cast. Best known for his TV roles in Judge John Deed, Inspector George Gently and The Professionals, he returns to the stage after recent West End triumphs including An Ideal Husband, Twelve Angry Men, Are You Lonesome Tonight? and A Man for All Seasons.

Agatha Christie and Margaret Rutherford should never have been friends. Their paths crossed when they found themselves at the heart of one of British cinema's most successful franchises. However, the Miss Marple films almost didn't get made.

Murder, Margaret and Me is a story of friendship, identity and the achievement of women in the long-lost world of the silver screen.

From the company who brought you Great Expectations and Our Man in Havana, Tilted Wig Productions are delighted to return to the Theatre Royal with this fascinating play which tells the story of two of our greatest and most celebrated national treasures. Lin Blakley is most recently known to audiences as Pam Coker in EastEnders.

In the long-since 'grand' ballroom of the local Swan Hotel, a most miscellaneous assemblage conduct the business of the Pendon Folk Festival... led by excitable chairman Ray...

Unfortunately, for Ray, his calamitous committee quickly divides, as his wife Helen has a bone to pick...

Add a Marxist schoolteacher, a military dog-breeder and an octogenarian secretary, and the table is set for one of comedy master Ayckbourn's most hilarious plays - a tumultuous comedy by committee, not to be missed.

The star cast includes leading stage and TV actor Robert Daws, best known for the hit series The Royal, Outside Edge and Roger Roger, alongside Deborah Grant who has starred in Not Going Out and Bergerac. They are joined by Robert Duncan, known as chief executive Gus in the 90s sitcom Drop The Dead Donkey, whose theatre credits include A Streetcar Named Desire and Educating Rita, as well as TV and theatre veteran Mark Curry.

TEN TIMES TABLE is the inaugural production of The Classic Comedy Theatre Company, produced by Bill Kenwright and his team behind: The Agatha Christie, The Classic Thriller, and The Classic Screen to Stage Theatre Companies - which between them have enjoyed over 15 years of theatrical success across the UK.

A MAGICAL MUSICAL TREAT FOR ALL THE FAMILY

THE SECRET GARDEN

THE MUSICAL

Book and Lyrics by Marsha Norman

Music by
Lucy Simon

Based on the novel by
Frances Hodgson Burnett

This amateur production of "The Secret Garden" is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH LTD, a Concord Theatricals Company

University Centre Weston returns with a classic heart-warming tale for the entire family! The multi-Tony award winning The Secret Garden, is an enchanting adaptation of the classic children's story reimagined in brilliant musical style by composer Lucy Simon and the Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Marsha Norman.

The story follows 11 year-old Mary Lennox who, after becoming orphaned in India, returns to Yorkshire to live with her reclusive uncle Archibald and his invalid son Colin. The estate's many wonders include a magic garden which beckons the children with haunting melodies and the spirits from Mary's past who guide her through her new life.

(on Dick Whittington 2018)

Windsor Favourites Kevin Cruise, Steven Blakeley and Anita Harris return to the Theatre Royal in this year's spectacular pantomime. The nation's favourite fox Basil Brush is also back to spread joy and laughter this Christmas.

Bigger, messier and funnier than ever before, join Windsor's calamitous comic and resident Dame as Widow Twankey and her hapless son, Wishee Washee take you on a magical carpet ride in the greatest pantomime adventure of them all.

They are joined by showbusiness icon Anita Harris, and not forgetting the little fox with the big laugh, Basil Brush, to bring you another helping of Windsor pantomime fun.
